

Plogoff

This album was composed in two parts. 5 tracks are the rejects of Cynism album composed at « Les Trois Barils » in mountains during winter 2019/2020. And 5 others were composed in Plogoff, Brittany, during spring 2020. It was at the end of Plogoff, where the last home are before « La Pointe du Raz » where we lived the quarantine with some friends. Discreetly, we were going on the paths to dance in the sun. I took this picture on the last path before « La Pointe ». During Police check we were just opening the closest garden and affirm that it was our home.

When I write this, the quarantine is not finished yet. And we don't really know if the covid-19 will finally kill the real virus : Capitalism. Even if he already kicking him so hard.

I can imagine how animals and plants can be suddenly free while our world is completely empty of human presence during several months. And that makes me happy.
